Newspapers

Newspapers are a part of our daily lives. They inform, they entertain, they report "the news." All too often, however, "the news" consists of sensationalism and what newspaper publishers and editors deem to be "the big events," and yet the phrase "yesterday's news" has come to be synonymous with something that is passé and of no more interest.

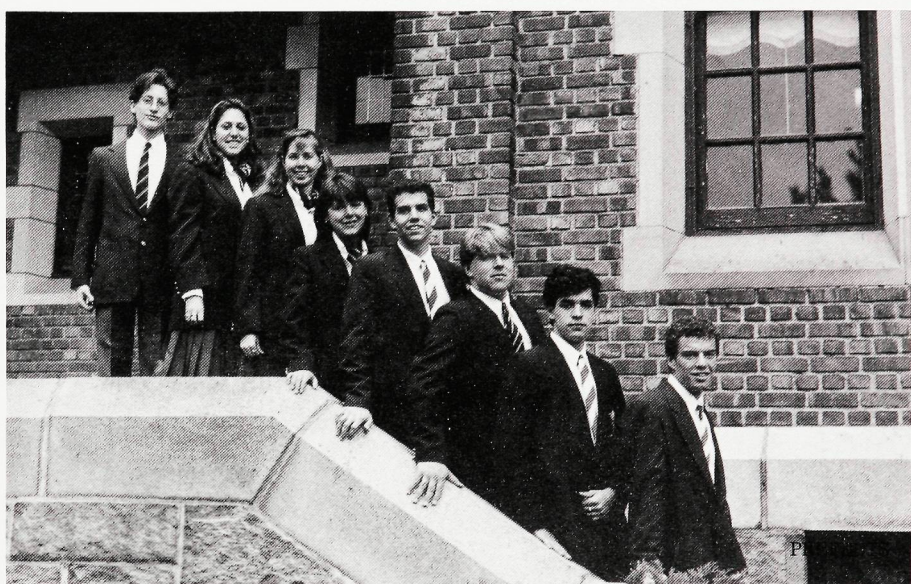

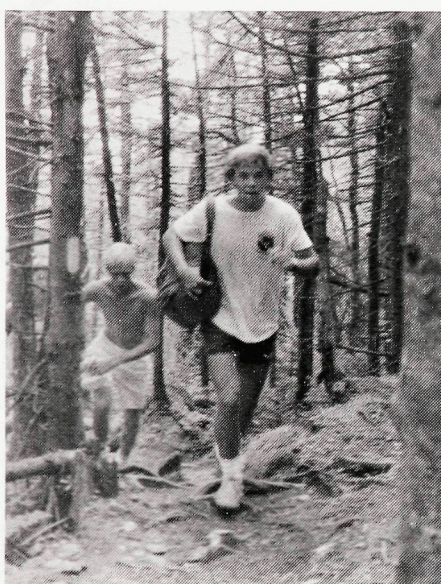

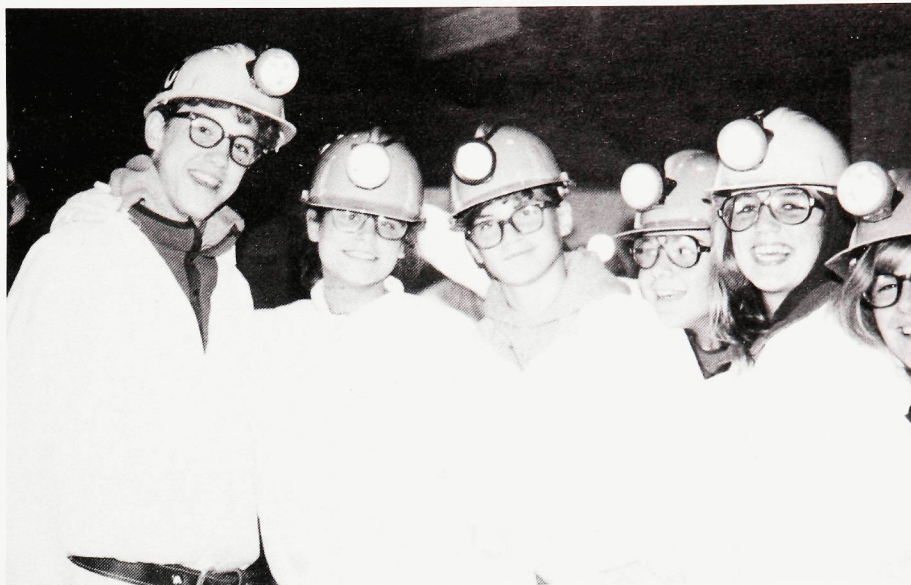

Here at BCS we try to teach, amongst many other things, perspective. We try to teach that daily effort and involvement, that steadiness and commitment are of far greater worth than grandstand plays, that doing one's best is just as heroic - possibly more so - as becoming a star. Not that there is anything wrong with being a star. BCS has produced several over the past century and a half and will no doubt continue to do so. But perspective, or balance, is important and if BCS is part of a process that helps produce concerned and active citizens, we will have done well.

These people won't make headlines but perhaps a tiny corner of the world will be better for them having been there. Very few of us will be able to make 'the world' a better place but if we each work on making where we are more of a garden than a wasteland, we will have made our contribution. If each of us does that then perhaps one day, the newspapers won't have wars, oil spills, acid rain, hunger, poverty and rampant crime to write about. It's worth working for.

DAGC.

Another Successful Year at B.C.S.

The theme for this year's BCS Magazine is "The Newspaper" - it's headline might well read "ANOTHER SUCCESSFUL YEAR AT BCS".

To have chosen a newspaper theme is interesting. Not so many years ago, when television newscasts became popular, many people predicted the demise of the daily newspaper. This has not happened; many daily newspapers continue to flourish. Why? Probably because an important segment of our population wants more than simply raw information. We want analysis, in depth reporting, opinions and commentary. A newspaper provides all of these much more readily than do the electronic media (which often favour the "30 second clip").

A well rounded education, which BCS provides, teaches us to think, analyze and debate issues so that we can reach informed opinions; we will generally want more than a 30 second clip.

But now back to "ANOTHER SUCCESSFUL YEAR AT BCS". Such a year does not occur by accident; it is the result of concerted and concentrated effort by students, faculty, staff and the many volunteers who help all year - thank you all.

A special thank you to the man who makes it all happen - David Cruickshank, our Headmaster, who will be retiring in June 1990. We will all miss you David, and are in your debt for all you have done for BCS and its many participants and friends.

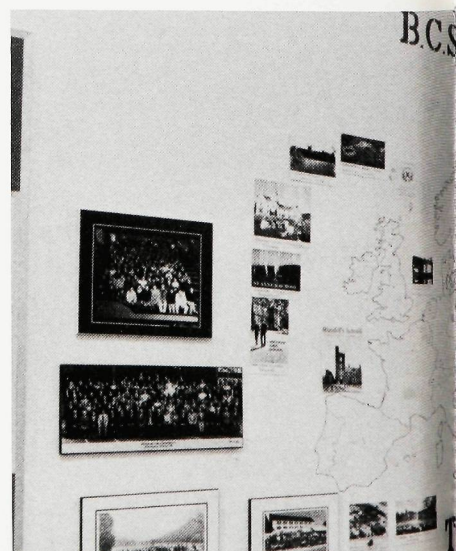

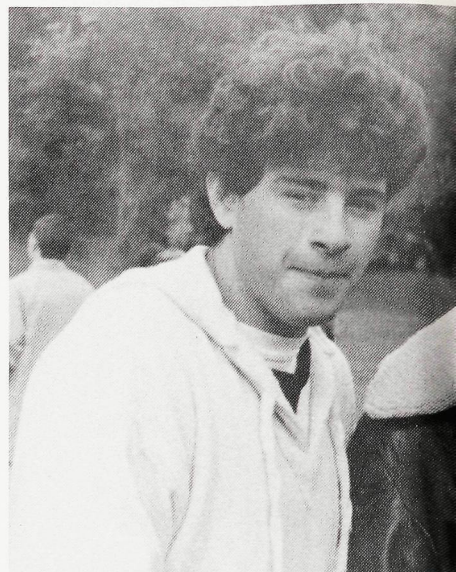

Good luck to you all!

Rugby Tour

For most of the 1st XV rugby team, the season began in the cold of January with training sessions in the gym. Then during March break, we boarded our plane at Mirabel, some of us already flying, to our U.K. destination. After an eventful plane ride, we arrived in England, and headed to Scotland to begin our tour.

Once there, we experienced many facets of true rugby spirit in such places as Rannoch, Edinburgh and Selkirk. The standard of rugby that we witnessed was first class and the experience that we gained played a large role in the success of our season in Canada.

Though we only managed to score in three of our five matches, our scrum matched every team we played. Another valuable experience was the training session at Selkirk, where we were coached by two Scottish international players.

Aside from rugby, we visited numerous sights, landmarks, and deep, dark corners. We really enjoyed the hospitality and customs of our hosts and hopefully we entertained them as much as they did us.

Aside from newly formed habits [Tetsuya], a good time was had by all. Many thanks to Mr.'s Cameron, Dutton, and Robson and to Alec the bus driver.

Jerry's, Champ's, they all know him as "Mr. Scraps". Tiane is his roommate for three minutes a day when they intersect at the door, the rest of the time he's in room 4 with the rest of his kind. The motto that he has inspired in his followers, "Stay Up Later And Do Less", is truly irreplaceable. Once again he leads with his mohawk. Steve's parents say don't come back! but you have nice earrings. Nice burn with your clothes in the shower.

A Garden
Low through my heart like the musical mingling of fountains
And the laughter of moorland streams
Comes the lilt of a melody sweet with the musk of the roses
And the rich mellowness of ancient things.
I see again the twilight fall on a well-loved garden
And the sun's last blessing on the evening corn
I feel again the quiet that would flood the meadows
After the stars were born.

(The CAVE - South House:)

Piper, there were 50 good reasons to come to South but we also found out a different meaning of the number 50. Now the Wonder Year is at an end and we must continue onward. Don't FLIP over anything and most importantly, remember the cave. 150 no-nos stacked into one space with 'other' surprises. In conclusion I would like to say our good-byes to Sam and Connie, our friend from Mexico, and, of course, Abso. Your RM, P.V.

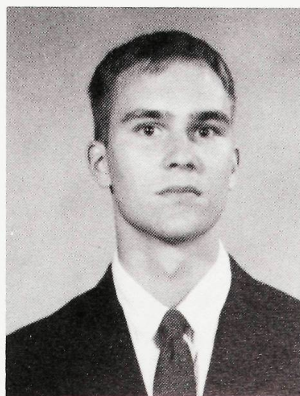

Andrew Touze

(Chapman hse. - Watching football)

As if you're going to play for Rice. Notre Dame will never die, Miami got lucky. Nice announcement though, after you got over your phobia during football season we couldn't you in your seat . . . and what was that thing on Mike's neck. Have you started your physics yet? As if. Good luck in the States and I hope your life works out, man. See ya in some future dimension.

The Commissioner

Patrick Verner

(The CAVE - South House:)

We shall remember the Untouchables (mainly us and Gab). Also, remember the Absolut necessity of visiting Sam and Connie as well as Amy under the Fruit-tree. You served Studly Dudley well and acquired great lumberjack (pioneering) techniques as you also found the hidden meaning of the number 50. You learned many things this year, to leave SMITH and let them smoke, and what to say and when to say it. (Shhh.). GUYS . . . WHAT'S IN THE BOX? Remember, Piper live on!

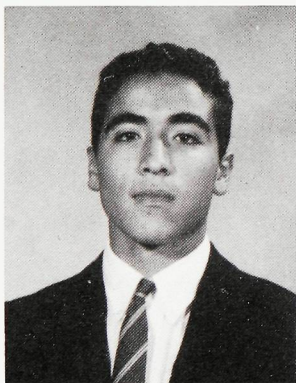

CAREERS (CONT'D)

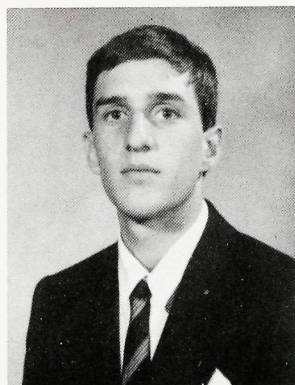

TWIN SISTERS REUNITED AFTER YEARS OF SEPARATION!

GRADS - FORM VI

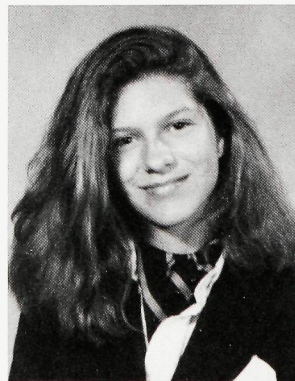

Ahmed Abouon

Yes Ahmed! What's up. I am glad that you were a House Captain, a Warden and an NCO. Remember the class of '89'. Remember the days that we spent with Ghailes. "Saturday night basketball in the gym. Anyway see you in the real world. Good luck in the future. N.K, I.R, B.O and G.T." zits! Ahmed.

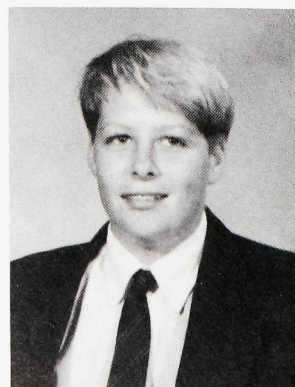

Frederic Arsenault

Education is what you have left when you've forgotten everything you learned in school. - Albert Einstein

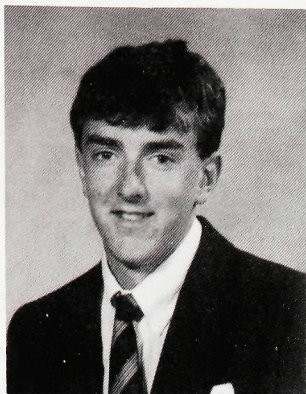

Anne-Marie Ashcroft

Are you singing in your room again? Well, now that we've walked in your moccasins for two moons, we can easily analyse the situation and . . . uhh . . . break it down for research. I'm going to win back my Bifford? Apparently not. La debarque. Can I run my fingers through your pink p_____ hair. (Pat) Gates? You don't know your left moccasin from your right moccasin! You were always on my mind . . . Kevin!? A beard?! We've been through everything and there are still two terms left! YIKES! B.G's originating at Mee-Ho's. Oh you fuzzy bunny! We love ya! Rin and Tin.

Erick Beausejour

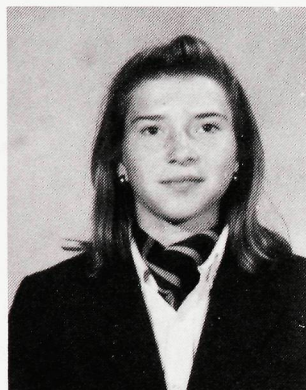

- Val D'Or what a place. Roommates for a couple of years, sunflower seeds, acorns, pennysteins. FP1. What a trend. Ya the Nords, boy they are bad. Nice computer. FBI. Enjoy the bridge? It's late, it's 9:31. You are the five F's, remember. It's been fun.

Ian Belton

YES POMPASS! (2) Belton from Bolton, ya right! What? I can't have a phone in my room? Talk about Kim a bit more! How much was that phone bill anyway? Do you have to wear those same cheezy boxers everyday? No, you never think of going home! We know you want to stay for Christmas but it's against the rules We know you don't shower but you could at least use deodourant! A man who keeps the post office in business, But please, laugh louder after lights out!

The Ultimate French Pepper! "Nature walks" rain or shine or 30 below, nothing could stop us! After Grad or pork out sessions. FFBFF, the field. Don't worry, we'll come and visit you in the country while you're milking the goats. "Where's all your money?" "The bouncer has it!" Hey guys! I "tink" I grew!! Always being disorganized is the only way for our Annie, to wear a watch would be a sin. "You mean être à l'heure?" "Franglais is the best type of communication. However we all turn out to be, we'll always remember our little Annie (Don't ever break the chain 'cause the bond between us will always remain...)

Love Always,

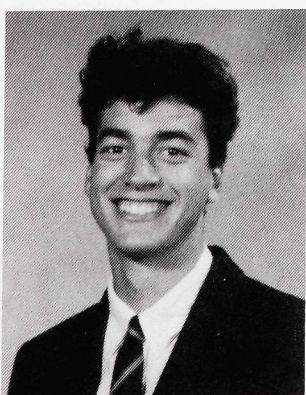

Ryan Bernstein

Ry-Ry. Lord Helmet. Just why, just because. Do I see Headmaster wearing a CLEAN football jacket driving a Colt? You are the Zeus of the Bradley clan but it's a good thing you never b... oops! Bob is still p... d. One day you'll know how to pack. In the rain?? You sure know how to pick 'em. Girls L.G.B.N.F. Are you crazy? "If you come to me, you'll get the Jimmy for free "See you with the rent money and the couch. Love, The Jungle Brothers.

Best Wishes in the future from all your friends here at Bishop's.

Aaron Burgermeister

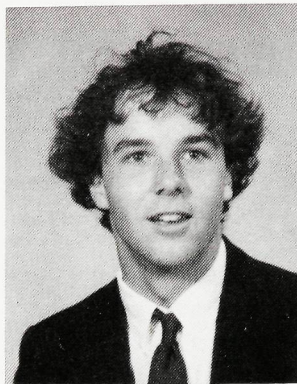

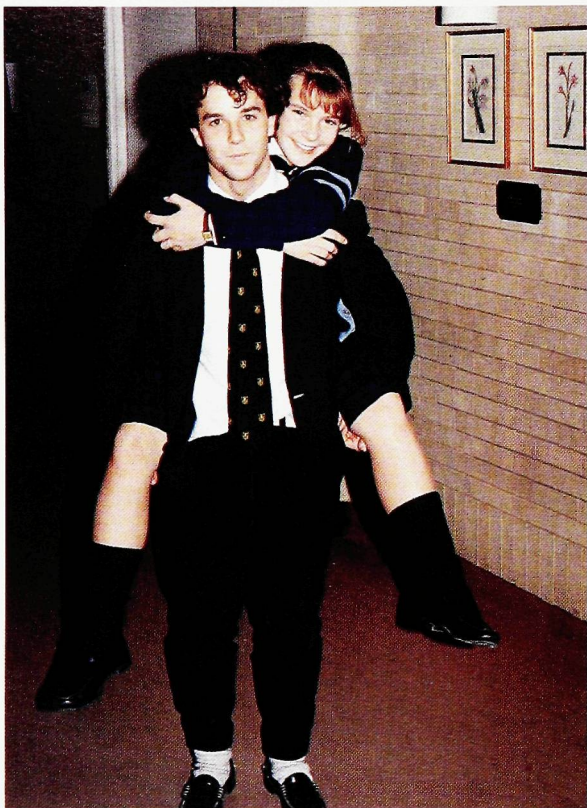

(Physics lab)
Burger, Cheese Burger, Boef Hachee, Burger Boob etc. "Gee, why doesn't anybody call me Aaron" It has been two years and the best lines have been "I got to go plug in my boots". "Oh yeah! Really funny. I'm going to get 100% at Christmas". "Maaarc, what are THEY whispering?" "I swear, I'm dropping physics". "What do you mean? It smells great in here!" "Flirting? I'm not flirting". "Pakastani! Shut up, I don't even know any Pakastanis" Remember Burg, the more speed you get, the higher you go. Come visit from your inferior school next year and bring your "Escort".

M.P.

Philippe Ciaravola

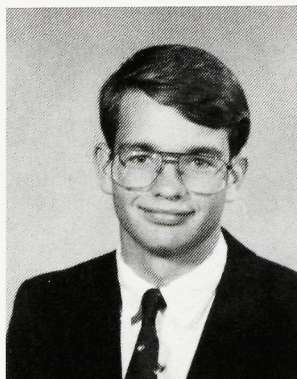

Where is the french house captain? He must be out to Lunch or asleep in Williams. The summer school stud stuck out twice already... but he's still up to bat. BMX wipeouts with Biff, computer room wipeouts too. We tried some new stuff this year (nice axe!) but the macaroni parties always come to mind. Always looking chic in the PZ Trend, B-huggers, Duffle Jacket, Black Eyes, and the BNIC tie. Long live Nintendo, gammon, cute braces and feathered hair - we love you Vola. Smile. BL, LS, PM, LW, NK, JB.

Philip Côté

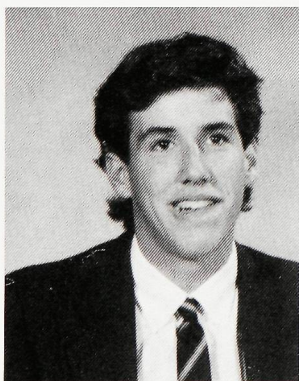

On the phone. (B.C.S.)
Phil ended his 5th year at B.C.S. with soccer and rugby trophies, a bumette, and a good clean shave. Always a barbers delight, in 2nd form Pip prided himself with his neatly combed hair and track and field talents. In time, all this changed. He bought himself a lawn chair and some Whipped Cream, and went on the road to McNaughton House. Besides owning the best Tuck Shop around, #19 blessed us with his sarcasm along with his hockey skills. Lieutenant Côté scammed his way to the top but paid his dues.

I'll see you tomorrow?

Party on Garth! Country boys rocks metropolis of Lenn. "Why research it when you can B.S. it." Awse bubbles dude! I'm God you're St! Remember, prison isn't fun, think of old boys. And for those returning, I salute you with a tribute to M...!

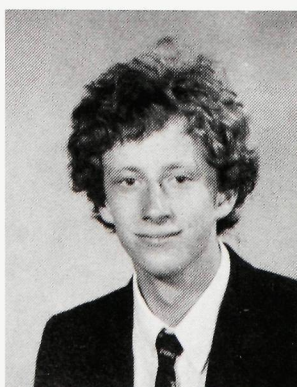

Steve Desmeules

Chapman (B.C.S.)
"Le Bla Bla Bla vendra des beignes aujourd'hui dans les cloisters", says a voice coming from the chapel choir section. It is undoubtedly Steve Desmeules'. A very distinguished soccer and rugby player from Sillery in Quebec cite. He has adopted many nick names here at B.C.S. such as: Rock, Mario and Disco Steve. All of them differently reflect his good natured personality. Hopefully it will stay with him for the rest of his life (in Quebec). Du Tourist. P.S.: I Like your Pony!!!

Sonia Cote

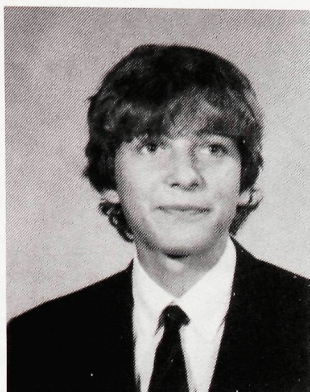

Although I arrived late in the school year, my roommate welcomed me with open arms (or harms as she would say!). Here is just a few of the things we'll always remember! Fridges, heat, sessions, health bars, apples, popcorn, dancing flowers, Christmas snow, wake up!!, posters, annoyances, secrets, talking in sleep, french-english mix-ups, hard times, vests and many more! Here's to a new and lasting friendship! Love Joy

Andrew Detchon

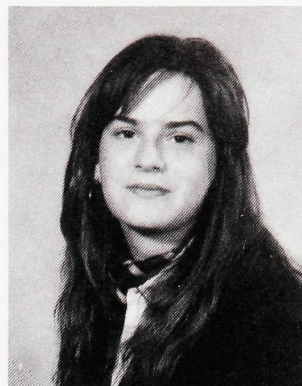

(B.C.S.)
"I'm a joker, I'm a . . . , I'm a midnight toker"
A staff brat, townie, who's always got a bad joke to tell. Since 4th form he has been able to appreciate life's greater values ie: guess! Detch, beware of the killer towel machine and don't worm around on other people's property. Remember the big 50, and hosting the summer of '89. Dry wall's, Affro's, and Au Blitz. All part of his past, and his future.

Julie Duquette

Hey Jules! With the love we shared, came the good memories: the adventure of the Killer Fork will go down in history. You must excuse our surprise towards your voice, but we did get used to it. How could we not? Our tenor could be heard by North! Inevitable moments when we had to go for one. After all these years, FFBFF will always be part of our lives, for we will never break the chain 'cause the bond between us will always remain . . .

Love Always,
Pepper, Izzy and Spic.
Thanks Mom, Dad and my brothers for all your support you've given me.

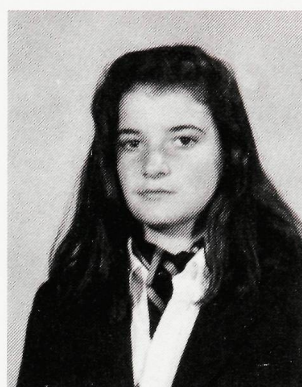

Amy Donnachie

(3B 102. The answer to every problem!)

Amy came to us a sweet and innocent mom's girl. She worried about everything including Chuck. But with a little work from some close friends, and her effort, Amy developed into a proud partier. She now cruises around in her peel off wood car, that has doors which squeak, or don't open. Incidents with teabags are reoccurring nightmares for Amy, sometimes napkins, too. She may be out of place at the 'Herm', but never the lantern, the Lion or any other foundation in this line.

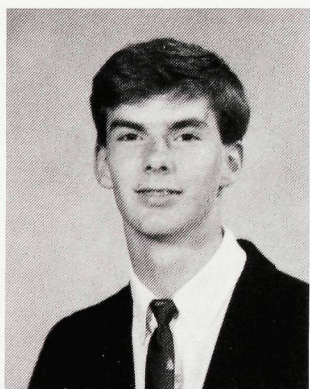

Good luck Ed!
All our love,
LO & Sal

Lotus Ellis

Lootus!!! What kind of name is that?" "You know what I mean?" Skinny dipping and "turn the lights off!" Your the best!! Beaches in Florida! Sandcastles! What were you two doing? Do you want to go to Jupiter? Watch out for the plants . . . Shh. Where the Hell is it? The Ross House trio. Don't leave Lennoxville Lolo., We don't want to lose you.

The Evolution Of Kevin
In the beginning there was Dr. Casars chipmunk, four years later there came a red car (KWF 998), and from within . . . came Kevin. Remember Cookshire Highway? The 55 from Quebec? How about the days of Jen! Julie! Penny! Isabelle? How about Montreal (October Break): "Oops a Volvo", and drive in hotels. Well don't worry Kev, you've got a dry life ahead of you! ". . . so I gave her the car keys, and she helped me to bed . . ."

"You know what, I've grown a little bit in the past few months. You are not that short Pascale, you will grow . . . sometime. We wonder why you chose physics and chemistry and not drama and art. We lost every field hockey game but we had the best time. We won't forget you . . . vamos vamos es tarde!!!"

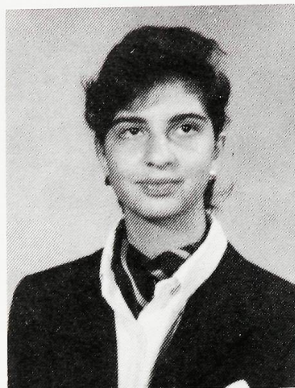

Luv,

Valeria Enrich

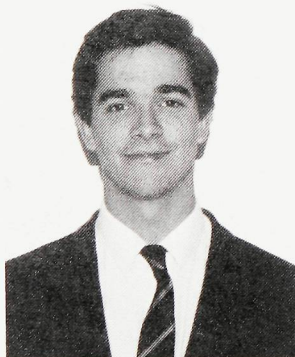

Spike!!! Nice hair, I have never seen one like yours, I don't know, it's different. You gave us the biggest headaches when you started screaming, and laughing BIG BIRD for the basketball teammates, you know why, don't you? Nice deep sexy voice with spanish accent!! "I'm very shy, I don't want to go there . . . , I'm going to turn red. I'm the best . . . C'est bon mon francaise bon eh?" Don't change Valeria, we like you like that. Don't worry, don't be afraid of not finding anyone to marry you, we are still looking for one!!!! Luv, P.D., H.H., S.A.V.

Talin Festekjian

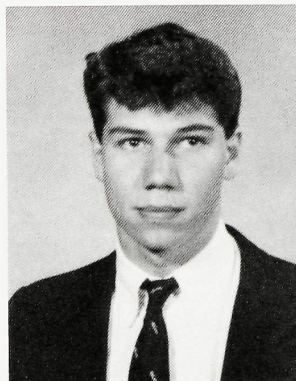

(Taline's Kingdom)
Life's not so bad anymore, is it? You've made it through the first term and you'll make it through the rest (even if it takes all of your friend's support!) "Taline! Phone! New York, Los Angeles or Boston. (which brother, she yells). "I hope I didn't fail!" (The next day: only 90%, I can be soo stupid!") Only the best universities are fit for you. They're all waiting for you, you're actually wanted!! A miracle from God, . . . ? or maybe you're just one of those people with all of the luck, or it's in the family genes! Good luck in the years to come! A friend who'll miss you dearly when you go to the U.S.

Hi Seventeen!! I know that you are surrounded by girls. But I know that you'd rather be sitting with your parents or bros and sister. You always talk about your Pappy and Mommy! We are happy that you are a House Captain, a Warden, and a Cadet Leader. I wonder how you were the best in hockey. One of the best in basketball and a champion in swimming. BCS girls are the best. JP, SV, JD, AA, LC.

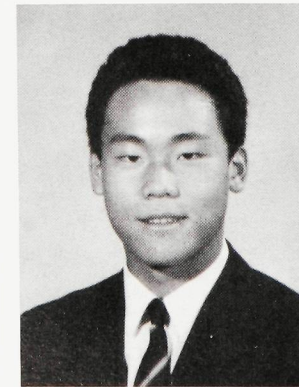

Robin Hurrle

(Yonge ST.)

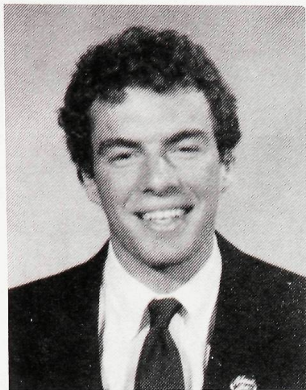

"Hey, Burg, who's the funny looking kid with the big nose?" R.H (pronounced Har Haych) came to B.C.S in fifth form and brought with him not only a full line of tasteless jokes, but a knack for adding the letter "H" to everything: hobbvisly, hokay.

Memorable lines include: "No, I'm not 18, I'm from New Brunswick". "What do you mean it's not real rank?". "I swear that was a prefect!". "Bah! It's a rich boys sport anyway!". "It's not my fault that you bought six of 'em but look they're good, a little light, but good". M.D

Ray Lawson

(McNaughton Room 15 B.C.S.) Ray Lawson IV, alfalfa grower "par excellence" graced our presence. MacGyver, Hawesome Lawsome, "spaghetti without sauce please?" Selwynistic moves, 200 meter speed demon, Shut-up guys, seriously guys, this is irrational, this is illogical thinking, we are being impetuous by leading our lives as such!! Eat my healthy Zel Rice Puffs and Tofu and you will be saved from the apocalypse!

BIFF. So many years with you sure did teach us city-slickers a lot. First AA, then MT (who wrote that?) Spliff where is that ocean? Hats, haircuts, hernia scars, and macaroni parties were the best with Unibrow. Cadet Biff and dining hall leadership. We'll buy you a Beetle to race with your uncle. Guys, where's my bed? The tuning fork, Euen the football stud (go bif go!), Dan's roommate (good punch!) - how can we forget you? You're always on our mind. Smile. PC LS PM LW NK JB

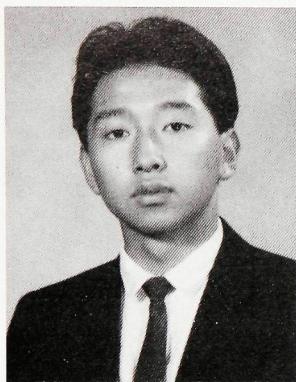

Jeremy Long

(McNaughton Room 14 B.C.S.) Howie Long came here expecting all-night parties, endless women and good time. Instead he got to know various spots around campus very well. He was especially fond of the boiler room, the rink bathroom, and Mcnaughton house laundry chute. He immediately threw himself into the school life, being an active student librarian, lay reader, and the fact that he thought of himself as "relentless" really blew his mind! Have fun living as a bum! J.S., P.C., I.G.D., R.L.

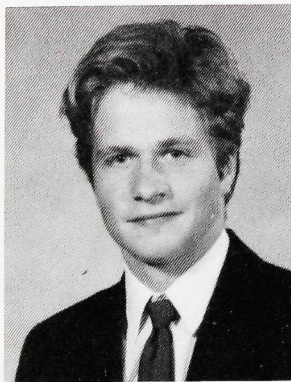

Chris Mac Donald

BONUS! Inventor of "V.D.", Where to? the P.G.A. or just early mornings with uncle Lew? Lose those U.N.B. clothes ya geek! Give back those colours golf doesn't count! Senior football M.V.P. what would we do without our holder? World famous defenseman and rejector to Mr. Sherriff's offensive abilities (but aren't we all!). Stay out of our room and keep to your hole. Don't worry we know you're not really a newby but you'll always be a Newby! I.B. Y.M.W.

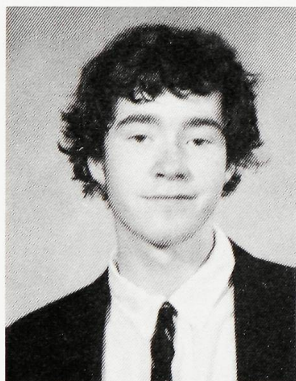

Tetsuya Maeno

Hi, Tets, congratulation! Find another girl?! Don't think that nobody knows you like pretty "blonds"! Ah, no wonder why you join X-country ski after "2" . . . last year. You are improving. (even though it's hard to tell!) Going with the Rugby tour to England? Well, I hope you won't sit aside or become a . . . boy . . . Be careful with your "s . . . der" Bruce L.

Mark Olivella

Mark is a true non-conformist. He's the only person who would dare show up for choir before Chapel in a blue shirt. He still doesn't understand why he was sent in; he said all his white ones shrunk, and he gave them to his sister. Right. This rebel only watches half movies, (the last half, of course) and takes cab rides to Sherbrooke, just to see what movie is playing. (he can't get actually go in, because he's not 18.) Good luck, Mark!

Appearing innocent, one would not believe what Tobin is up to. Anything with wheels and Tobin will drive it. Never failing to impress us with his sporting abilities, scars and broken bones will never stop Tobin from doing daring stunts (like jumping off roofs with skateboards). Always ending up under the table at Pub night and Carnival night, Tobin lives up to his expectations. North Hatley Parties, chicken wings at the Len "Ah, pull a doughnut!" Hey you, no not you, the tourist over there. You're such a crazy guy. Five years went by and you still wonder what you're doing here, you'll find out one day! What a great football player you are, so big and muscular. You're a great guy and I hope you find some treasure underwater in the St-Lawrence sometime. When you do, call me first, if not don't. Your friend "Le tourist".

R.C.M.P. MUSICAL RIDE

Bishop's College School is proud to present as part of the 129th Annual Inspection of Cadet Corps #2, the renowned Musical Ride of The Royal Canadian Mounted Police.

The magnificent glistening black horses, whose blood lines parallel the Canadian Hunter, are specially bred and raised at the RCMP Remount Detachment at Pakenham, Ontario. To maintain their individual character and spirit, these horses are trained not broken during a two-and-a-half year training period that begins at three years of age and includes, in part, learning to walk, trot, canter, jump, lateral work, flexion and all phases of transition, as well as exposure to strange objects and noises. During their stay on campus, the 36 horses are stabled in our hockey arena, and spectators are invited to view them there and have an opportunity to speak with the riders following the Inspection.

Bantam Boys Soccer.
LENNOXVILLE (B.C.S.)

This year Bantam Boys soccer proved to be a sport in itself. Under our sassy leaders, Mr. Macnish, Mr. Bederd, and former B.C.S. student Fred Scallabrini, we thrashed the opposition every time (we'll almost!). Our team really improved this season; in skill and discipline. We did have fun, though, and some players really stood out, especially: Patric Piccin, our star goalie (do you sharpen your cleats?!), Dave Gottdenker (stop mooning cars!); our star slide-tackling-twins, Bobby and Sean Ludlow; Jeremy Stafford (Dugh! What?); Tom Peacock our leading rusher (kill!); Bobby Veillion (loud mouth?); and last but not least, our two muscle men John Laidlaw and Marktin Su. We had a fun season. Thank you to our coaches.

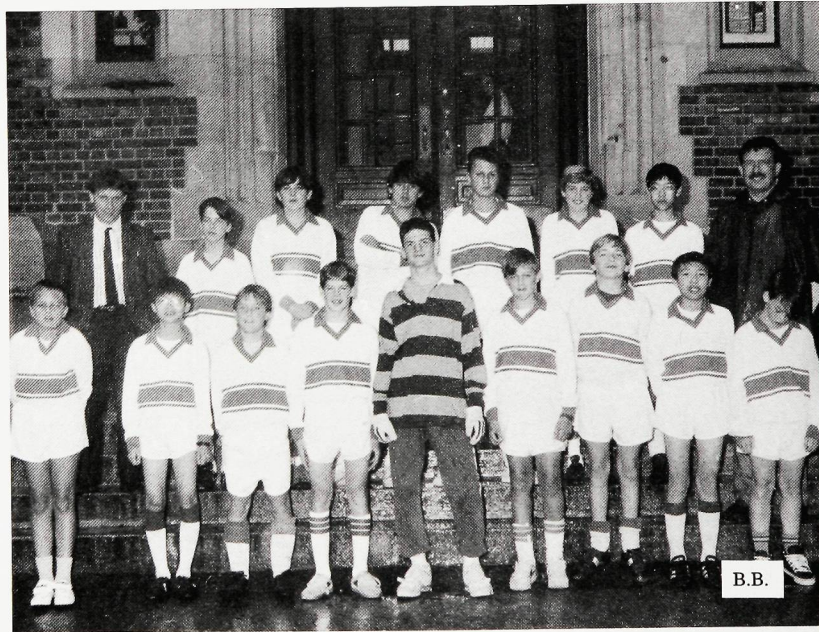

By the way, what does "OOGIE" mean?

Stafford, J. Edwards, J. Laidlaw, C.Y. Wu, Mr. Mack-nish.

Junior Boys Soccer

"Nice goal Chris!". "Good effort Jason!". "Great clear John!". "Nice laps Kareem!" We were a team, run praise.

Everyone was talking (we all enjoyed Eli's WITTY comments!) With Mr. Hinz and Mr. Dutton coaching us, trying to explain the "SPRING THEORY", through ten minute runs, long bus rides ("WHAT??? An away game on WEDNESDAY???" and BUDDY strangling himself in the net. We finished the season in first place and won the E.T.I.A.C. championships. Frank was even promoted to "OFFICIAL FLAG-MAN" from his water-boy position last year! Thanks a lot everyone, it was a great season.

Senior Boys Soccer.

LENNOXVILLE, (B.C.S.)

The Senior Soccer squad at B.C.S. did not have one of the most fantastic season, but there are many points to recall:

The return of "seventeen". The "Champs" delivery man. The lack of (soccer) balls. Yusef's hair (Where's my brush?). "Unlucky, unlucky." The French and Spanish Connections. Melon-head from L.C.C. Ahmed's many girlfriends. Roddy's all-acclaimed penalty shots.

Many things are to be remembered from the L.C.C. Tournament in Montreal also;

The second-string goalie from the Cayman-Islands. Nic Bruneau locked up in the cage. The long nights, the hang ---. Where are Antonio and Bruno? The dipping and the digging, "La Maisonnee", Peel, DJ's and Christopher's. "Could you take off your bandana please?" "What? We have a curfew?" Nadime - Thunderdome or The Rising Sun?" "Lovely kickage" The long hike down to the field.

All these quotes etc. . . will be cherished throughout the lives of the Senior team. The eagerness and courage of the Major and Mr. Slocombe was extraordinary under the circumstances. The whole team would like to congratulate them on a fantastic job.

In conclusion, only Phil Marleau's famous quote may sum up our season;

"NO DICE"

Senior Girls Soccer.

Lennoxville, Quebec

We were a great team this year. We had Team Spirit, Ability, Strength, and we tried extremely hard. Though some way and somehow, we only won One game! and then in mid season losing to that team!!

However, we did have a lot of good memories!!!

- 1, 2, 3 Break!!
- Oogie, Oogie, Oogie . . .
- Good head!!
- "Sir, may we run down by the Senior Boys soccer field!?"
- Hands Down!!!
- Mich vs The "Exterminator!"
- "Try kicking the ball upwards, Heidi!"
- "Nice slide tackle Sally"
- Lotus and Monique "Let's go to Stanstead!"
- "To Amy to Amy"
- "Where's your bandana??"

Anyways, Thanks a lot guys for an awesome season and a great final game!

Thank you very much to our wonderful manager Natalie Goulet, and also to Mrs. Sakamoto. We would like to show our appreciation to Mr. Lilford for his

"TALENT SHONE THROUGH!"

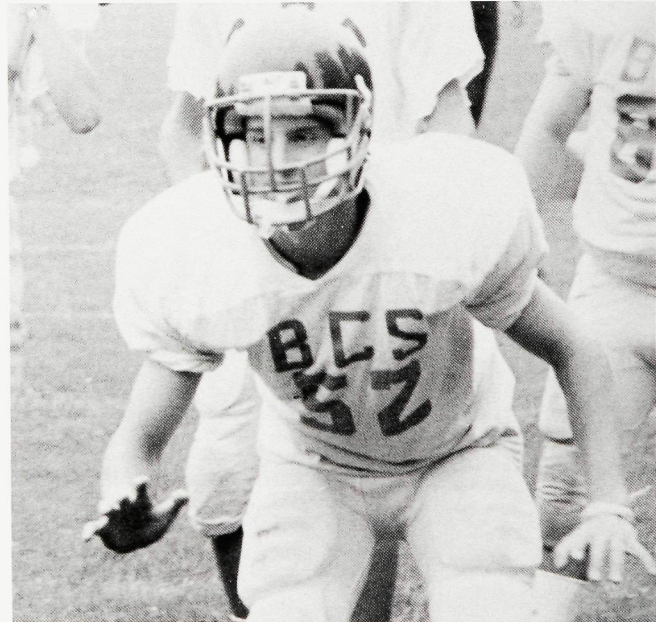

Sr. Football

The "Caped" Crusaders defended Gotham stadium with no mercy for the invading "villains" who dared to show their helmets on our turf. We went undefeated in league play, and won a number of trophies; the Headmaster-Principles cup was won from Galt for the first time in B.C.S. history, the Senator Howard trophy was won from Stanstead for the tenth year in a row and the Norsworthy cup was won from Selwyn House School. We hosted Galt in the playoffs and unfortunately lost by four points.

We had a very talented team, most were first year players who quickly learned to love the game. Although we lacked size, we had desire. The defense earned the name "Purple Wall" and Ewan 'Turf' Lilford the name 'super back'.

This was my last season and I will miss the joy of the block and the glory of the sack, the thrill of the win and the agony of the loss but I will always have the memories;

- BRUTUS our manager "Who forgot the water buckets?"

- Touts (Mr. Bruce), Imagine Andrew playing for the Hurricanes.

- Davy (The D.A.), Thanks for the army songs.
- Ry-Ry (The boy wonder), His visor instilled Fear in the hearts of Quarterbacks around the league.

- Stairs (Elway), The passing ability that other teams only dreamed about.

- Long (Howie), What time is it?

- Wells (Robert), One will reconsider running into Kyler, after one has picked up all of ones teeth.

- Kyle (Kill), Who finally learned how to kick during Physics class.

- Paulo (surf II), Almost got caught at the goal line.

Thanx to the "G stringer" and the big french guy, the team and everyone who came out to support us on those cold Autumn days.

Junior and Bantam Football. Lenn (BCS).

We had a learning season which ended on a good note. We have high prospects for the "little guys" that were on the team this year. We brought out a lot of talent this year in many of our players: our star 6'10", 280 pound center Adam Gotdenker, Steve (Darth Vader) Richardson who wore a visor to protect his eyes from bugs when running at high speeds, and last but not least, our star defensive tackle Matt Moss who displayed some great talent, even when he was tied up. For those of us who are returning, we look forward to another great year and for those of us who are moving up to senior, we wish you good luck.

FIELD HOCKEY X-COUNTRY RUNNING "SPIRIT AND ENERGY AND GETTING INTO SHAPE!"

Girls Field Hockey.

Lennoxville (B.C.S.), "The field hockey team was supposed to go to Montreal today but we didn't and therefore we didn't win our game and we didn't do our prep; instead we had an early morning picnic. Postponed and cancelled became common words on the field hockey team although thanks to our coaches, the B.C.S. tournament and our games against the B.U. field hockey (or was it the basketball team) were both very successful.

Style, spirit and character were not the things we lacked on the team even if the victories were; a matter of trivial importance considering our gorgeous mud covered appearances after the end of each game (thanks mainly to Sam, Julie and our swamped field). We would like to thank the following people, Mr. Jackson, for helping us find that extra ounce of energy that we thought we never had, Mr. Sherriffs for putting some insanity into the crease (and for pushing us along from the back with Marty), but we would like to thank Mr. P. for seriously getting us in shape and for making us run on those days that we thought we couldn't. Even though some days we wished he wasn't there we knew he was doing it for our own good. (DEEP DOWN WE KNEW WE HAD A LOT OF FUN).

Thanks for everything!!

KARATE GYMNASICS RIDING PARTICIPATION "STIFF LEGS HIT AGAIN!"

Karate. Lenn (BCS)

Today in the news. A hotline from Japan!
A bunch of deranged teens began to take lessons in the mystic martial arts. The training, under the expert tutelage of our "groovy" instructor - Chris, saw us enjoying pleasant strolls in the woods along with well presented crease photos, and even a little bit of Karate . . .

Between all of us though, we had a good time. "Sensai says", Karate camp, and short creases were some highlights. Will we ever be able to form three lines?
And now for a word from our sponsors . . .
"Jeremy, get your hands out of your pants"
"I'm tired."

"Why are you late?"

"No talking . . ."

"TWITS"

"DA BEST IN DA WEST"

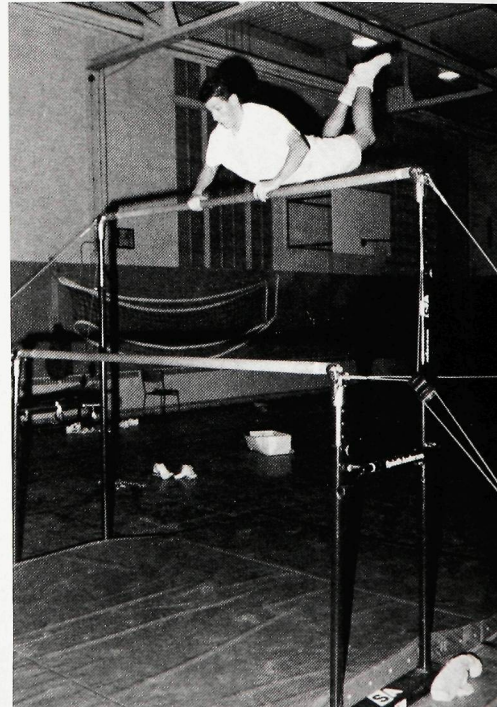

"It's good for you."

"Why do you always pick on me?"

"I've got new student line"

In the end there is only one word to describe our crease . . . EXCELLENT!

Thank a lot Chris,
Batman and the gang

Gymnastics.

"Lennoxville, (B.C.S.) -"

In the final week of term the girls competed in several events in an inter-club compulsory-routine gymnastic competition. The results were as follows:

The all-around champion on the combined totals of all the events:

1st (gold medal) = Jodi Breckenridge

2nd (silver medal) = Catherine Braconnier

3rd (bronze medal) = Natascha Reynoso, Catherine Chen

Congratulations to all the girls who participated in vault, bars, beam, floor and mini-tramp.

This year's co-winner of the Most Improved Gymnast - the Captain C.S. Martin Memorial Cup goes to Natalie Munk and Henriette Harland.

 Thanks for a wonderful term!

Riding.

Lenn (B.C.S.)

Thanks to Snippie, Heidi and Kelpie our team as equestrians was most enjoyable. This term's crease was an introduction to riding for some and a continuation for others.

To Mrs. Gallagher, Mr. Kandalaft, and our German instructors, Juergan and Inge, much thanks. It was a lotta fun.

We'll always remember the stiff legs, tired, smelly horses, Juergan yelling, "Forward! Ya! Ya!", the horse races, the best apples (freshly picked), Julie always saying Kelpie was the best, and of course, we'll never forget fighting with Mr. Kandalaft about whether to run or do weight room! Hopefully, one day, we'll all meet on a ranch somewhere in the west with guns, spurs and all!

Participation.

Lennoxville, (B.C.S.) - Participation was filled with fun, and Bahamians this year. Though it was hard to keep the Participationers going at the beginning, at the end everyone was "Participating". This year there was no flake control, but we really didn't need it either, right girls. The Participationers were informed that if they didn't shape up they would be shipped out, well no one left so we are in pretty good shape. Mrs. Peacock and Miss. Vaneyk did a wonderful in keeping us busy, or was it the other way around?

SENIOR HOCKEY

O.K. guys this is what we have to do: There always has to be a man in the slot. No, No, you have to get the puck when it's in the corner. Cover your man while back checking. Shoot, don't pass you might GORF IT?! Did you see that cheap call on me? Guys we can beat them! We should have scored in the open net. Don't take stupid penalties guys. Pat you're still here? Hey! Willie nice helmet! Biff hit the guy when he's not ready. Kyler did you mess up again? James stop tripping on those lines, they are not made for that! Cole stop head butting everyone you see! Phil stop flattering yourself! The Hansen Brothers? M.V.R. Tournament, now that was team spirit! Too bad Benny is off playing Old Timer's with Cliff & Grant! Daragh you have 2 minutes to get dressed, what's wrong, you're early today! What's your GAA after that game, but Scotty you played great. Belton where are you playing? Ghyslain do you understand, or do you want me to explain it to you? Hey Dan keep your head up! We don't want you

BANTAM HOCKEY

Lennoxville, (B.C.S.)

The bantam hockey team had a very successful season. Each player on our team had an individual secret. All our player's power's blended together formed an incredible, fighting machine. Here are some of the hidden factors which made our team such a successful one.

- Simon: great team spirit
- Phil: tough enough
- Jason: DIGGER!
- Jeremy: healthy
- Nick: even healthier
- Mark: stylish shirts
- Iain: smart injury
- Bruno: Speedy Gonzales
- Scott: The Hit man
- Chris N.: unsolved mystery
- Jason A.: double minor
- Seb: team guru
- Dom: "I can't find my skates, sir."
- Sylvain: punctual
- Tom: balanced
- Andrew: Mucktuck
- Jamie: prefers home games
- Chris E: The soul of the team

- Scan: traded
- Phil K: drafted
- Ghislain: promoted

We would like to thank all the people who made our away games possible: Mr. Pouliot for supplying the transportation. Weenie and the Eaglebrook hockey team for an extremely enjoyable tournament. We would also like to thank Guy, Josh, Chhe, Bobby, John, and Gillett. And especially the big guy behind the scenes, Mr. MacDonald, whom we couldn't do without. We all had a good time.

I.H.A. BOY'S BASKETBALL "THE MAGNET APPROACH."

I.H.A.
LENN (B.C.S.)

The I.H.A. is a special crease, in that it attempts to teach students of minimal to average skating abilities, how to play the game of ice hockey in preparation for the next season. In the last few years, the I.H.A. has seen an increase in the number of girls interested in hockey, therefore, adding a new dimension to the game.

The more advanced players have witnessed the beginner's "magnet approach" to hockey, everyone follows the puck. Every member of the I.H.A., especially those new to the concept of skating, have greatly improved. Though, it must be said that at the beginning of the season, some people looked as though they were under the influence . . .

Y.

W.+R.

To all of this year's I.H.A. stars interested in playing competitive hockey next year, the team captains and coaches would like to wish you good luck next year. In your attempt to make the competitive teams, do not forget all that you were TAUGHT! "Two hands on your stick!" . . .

Along with the guidance of P.B., Romo and Mr. G., the competitive team spirit among the players has made this an interesting and memorable year.

"All right everyone, suicides for each miss-

This years team displayed a group of fourteen players of almost every age. In our first season in a league, we learned that the only way to win is through hard work (believe me, we know!) After all the push-ups, jumps, and sprints, we finished second in the league.

Thanks to Mr. Hinz' energetic and inspired coaching, we managed to do well on the basketball court as well as defeating the volleyball team.

"SEASON WAS BASED ON FAITH . . ."

Senior Girls

"LENNOXVILLE, (BCS)"

I guess you could say that this year's basketball season was based on improvement. As tradition dictates, I would like to say something about all the members of the team. First the newcomers. VAL: Stop picking your nose! Would you run your suicides please? EECH! LISA: Are you done talking to Mike? This is crease time! Next the juniors who moved up. SALLY: Five fouls is all your allowed dear!! I hope you've learned that lay-ups should not be released from beyond the foul line! ISABELLE: You had to get sick, eh? Well, the stats have never been better taken care of! HILARY: Too good for the juniors were you? What were you doing in the shower

B.G.

at S.C.? CATHERINE: Catou! Our little french pepper. Don't worry so much! You were awesome! JEN: Look at those legs! Smile! you're an eighteen year old starter! And now for our veterans. AMY: The girl with perma-bounce! RB's not watching, go for the breakaway! EASY! HEIDI: Our third year veteran, what were you doing watching that movie in the hotel?? And finally, SILOLE: Slow, would you shut up for once? Pull up your shorts and go get'em. And lastly, thanx to Mr. P. Even though I think he almost gave up on us half-way through the season, he was a darn good actor and had faith that we would win at least two league games! We had some really great times guys, thanxs for the spirit and the fun. Love Michelynn. P.S. The Great

Alpine Ski Team

Lenn (B.C.S.)

This year, the alpine ski team debuted once again. We had a great season with a lot of snow. We met a lot of different people - like our friendly bus driver, who always made sure we knew how badly we really were doing, and our very french coach, Pat. ("Get those feets together!")

We travelled all over the Estrie zone and conquered such challenges a Mont Bellevue, the only mountain in downtown Sherbrooke. In the interscholastic races, we swept the medals, but we fell a little behind in the zone races.

Not the whole season was a success, though; Phil Marleau still hasn't learned to like gate-training, Anne-Marie's feet never stopped freezing between runs, and Aaron couldn't hold himself back from breaking all the bamboo gates at Bellevue. (It was too much fun!)
First Row: C. MacKenzie, K. Smith, K.

Cross-Country Competitive Skiing

Lenn (BCS) Despite the unpredictable weather (rain, snow, rain, snow) the ski team managed to pull off a successful season, we had many strong skiers and many potentials for next year (or the year after). Of course we could not do it without the help of the coaches; Mr. D. going crazy on his snowmobile, Mr. Marlin, (Rambo), Mr. Sakamoto, and of course the stylish Frenchhorn player, Mr. Jackson.

The crease bids farewell to all those dudes who are leaving, wishes those who are staying good luck in the new season and until we meet again: keep cool and be stylish! Detch

"THE DEFINITION OF PAIN AND SUFFERING."

Squash Lenn (BCS).

Nice Philidulphian Pat! Scott Barker? No need, we've got Mark. Johnathan, No problem!. Our juniors had an outstanding season. Mr. Cameron finally came to the decision that a squash racket would help a bit. The squash team saw many new faces this season. The ladder was dominated by the juniors. That was a classic!. Who said that?. We would like to thank Mr. Cameron, Mr. Slocombe, Mme. Forest, Mr. Trower and all those people who came out to support us, it was a Classic Season.

Karate

with a crease that nobody believed was real. We did more sets of stairs than anyone in the school, more pushups than all the cadets in the school, and had more fun than whipping the entire staff with a barbed wire chain.

The competition was cancelled because of Drivers Ed. But we weren't that disappointed. Dave finally got his blue belt and Jessie got her yellow. The three stooges (Imad, Dave and Sami) received more bumps and bruises than ever before, but are still alive. There was a major conflict over jewelry. Many close gatings, and many send-ins. Teaching at Les was an experience. "Keep running Mr. Gallagher."

Thanks go to Chris for teaching us the definition of pain and suffering, and to Soraya and Carolyn for keeping us up to date on all the gossip around school. Last but not least, Melissa, for her awesome changing hairstyles. Till we meet again - take it easy.

Later,

Dave

BOYS RUGBY

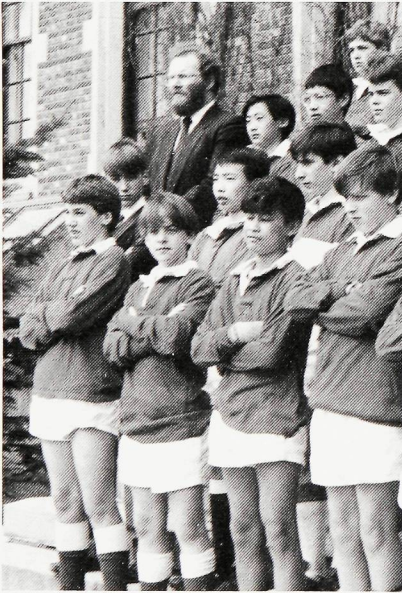

"INSPIRATION, PROWESS AND KNEES IN THE RUCK!"

Bantam Rugby Lenn. (BCS).

At the beginning of the season our team was quite pathetic. Most of us had no rugby experience and we were out of shape. In our first few games, the teams we played were twice our size and had much more skill. We never gave up and we slowly improved with the help of our excellent coaches, Big Mac and Mr. Slocombe. Even though our whole team was relatively small, we still had some great tacklers like Dave, Bobby L. and Mike. We had tough practises on rainy, muddy days and our team's skill improved more and more. Our hard practises finally resulted in an outstanding victory over Montreal's champions, L.C.C. Throughout the year, we tried our hardest and we learned a lot.

Junior Rugby

Lennoxville (B.C.S.) Well gents, through all of Bonehead's speeches and even though they put us in the right mood, we finished 3 and 4. But we are now rugby-ers. Through P's constructive criticism we over came . . .

Without the inspiration of George, Coles' cleanliness, Josh's athletic prowess, Guy's knees in the ruck, Jameson's enthusiasm, Scott's intense knowledge of the game, and the fact that Jon is British, we managed to fulfill our destiny as a team.

Thanks, Dudley.

Senior Rugby

We came, we saw, we kicked, a . . . !! 7's tournament champions over L.C.C. 24-12. Undefeated in Quebec. This awesome array of talent, led by the likes of BOUGER and PASSMORE wreaked havoc and fear among the opposition. Some highlights included TOUZE'S and TREVOR'S Standstead bashing, KYLER'S Ben Johnson at sevens, close games with Quebec High (78-0). T.C.S. - 4 down, 11 to go. We started with a really tight, small pack of forwards with CHUCK SLOW winning every hook in sight and BIFF'S 8 man sneaks. Our backs became consistent, led by PHIL and MURRAY. We had our friendly competitors - no heroes (MURRAY + BIFF???)

We had a very good season because every player put in a solid effort and all 19 members of the club could have easily played as a starter. We always put in a full team effort and as a result proved this. The players did more than what was called for and this must be commended. To the coaches, Mr. Dutton, Mr. Cameron, and especially Bill Robson. Thank you for your time, effort, and sincere commitment to our team.

TENNIS

GIRLS SOFTBALL

“AMBIDEXTEROUS PLAY AND HOW MANY OUTS?”

Tennis

Tennis has never been known to be one of the most exhilarating activities. This year was no exception. However, we did have some fun. Chrissie, served as an all-around addition to the team, while Tiane pulled an upset victory.

Despite many rainy days and a losing record we did learn a lot. . . . Tennis balls and rain don't mix. The B.U. courts provided more playing time, when our courts, were occupied by over-zealous players. Throughout the course of the term we were able to develop special skills such as ambidexterous play.

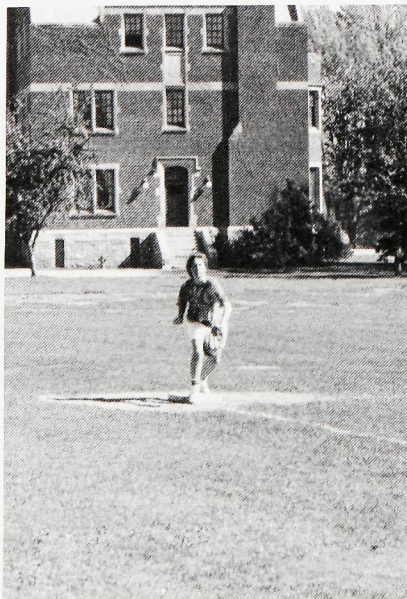

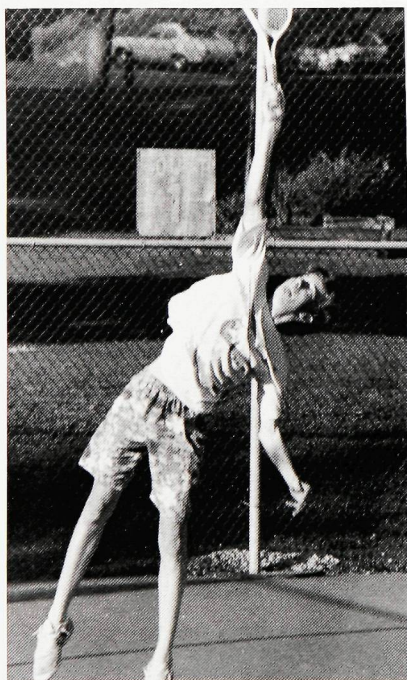

Many thanks to M. Bedard, Mme. Forest, Mr. Peacock, and Major Turner for their fine coaching.

Pacini's (Sherbrooke)

Watch it good now, watch it good. The question is what are we watching? Could it be . . .

LISA - Got it, got it, yes, oops! There it goes

Missy - True dat woman, just don't rush too much okay?
 Amy D. - We'll miss ya Aim! Thanks for being our fastest and most bestest, spirited player.
 Sophie - Rugby can wait Soph, just catch the ball!
 Caro - Hats off to you. 15 innings wow!!!
 Heidi - Too bad that darn base got in the way, you could have had an awesome season.
 Gab - A bit lazy are we???
 Miki - Now you're ready, get down now, come on. She's got the look!
 Niki - We know you don't like the catcher, but you don't have to hit her Demetra - Our only leftie, what are you doing at the top of the batting averages?
 Dina - Quit making obscene noises on the field.
 Sally - Your admirer is here again, better live up to his expectations.
 Asuka - SLOW DOWN!!!

Amy N. Okay, when you're ready. In a world of your own aren't you!

I guess we'll never know! And finally, the masters of our crease, with you, well, we did okay, but without you, I don't think we could have made it. You kept us up when we needed it, but let us know on 2nd base when we did wrong! Pacini's was fun aside from the food, where all of our true feelings came out.

Thanks for the great season and good luck to Amy, Caro, Heidi, Gab, our dearly departed. And last but not least, OOGIE, OOGIE, OOGIE

Softball League

Lennoxville (B.C.S.) Being the Rejects who could not catch or hit the ball right, or even get to base, we formed our own league. A league of 35 "Whining Cripples" divided into three teams. It was run by Mr. Brass and the "Psycho Hound from Hell", but which one was the psycho hound? The stats were kept by Mme. Mesnil who was constantly asked "Madame, how many outs?, Scott can't be right!"

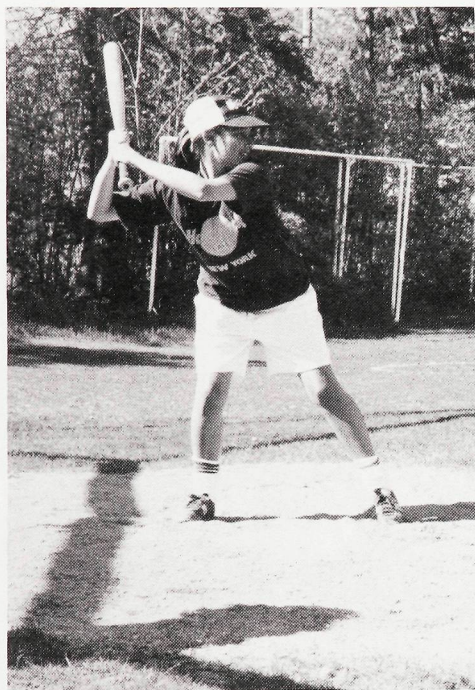

It's three-thirty, we saunter to Center Stairs. A chorus of groans escapes from the mouths of the people who had to go on the "Fun Run." The remaining went for the usual lap. After this we go to the field. "Balls in!" and the game commences. Get the "Big Daddy", we're up to bat! The ball is pitched, c'mon this is not golf! Oh, we're bowling for dollars again. "Strike!?" Scott you need glasses!! The ball is hit, but, of wait! "She's toast!!" "Ow! Sir, I'm hurt! Oh - it's only a broken leg - go back on the field. "Finally the game is over - "That was stressing - Let's go!"

Many thanks to Ms. Peacock and Ms. Nelson for without you we would not be fit. Thanks to Mme. Mesnil and special regards to Scott for all his good calls. We musn't forget our leader, Thanks Mr. Brass, we bow down and kiss your feet, How's that for effort ratings?

Horseback Riding

Heels down, elbows in . . . oh, be quiet Judy! After all, you are scaring Katherine! Liz, it's OK, I'll let you have Ben.

There goes Molly on Amigo! Gee, Amanda, that was not bad at all for a beginner. Jen W., just do it! Oh no Kristina, not Andy again. Kedrin, I'm sure you can handle the bugs.

Jodi! You showed up!

So, Catherine, did you really ride last summer? Caitlin, don't you feel special? You're Judy's favorite! Mme. St. Jacques, we hope we didn't bore you. Thanks, Betsy, it's been swell. Finally, as for Alex and Jen... well, we know we're too good to be true. Tee, hee!

So long, it's been real.

Adventure Training.

Lenn (BCS).

Green mountains, (Vermont); Dr. J. in his final year at B.C.S. taught us the meaning of the great outdoors. Bombing around in the "borrowed" Lousy T(w)o Door, teaching us the rules of the road "I'm bigger, get out of the way". Blessed with Louis' gifted talents as an outdoorsman, "$900 watch", driver" I didn't see the dump truck." and the volleyball pro "*@#!, I hate this game". We were off to a good start. With our traditional gourmet meals, McPukes, and "chicken and rice" otherwise known as the stuff in the pot. And thanks to Hester's cultured taste we were blessed with Earl Grey tea and Pate to cheer us up while hiking the "newly marked trail to Jay... 'let's bushwack. However, we were greeted at the top by the reassuring glow of a Pepsi machine and no quarters.

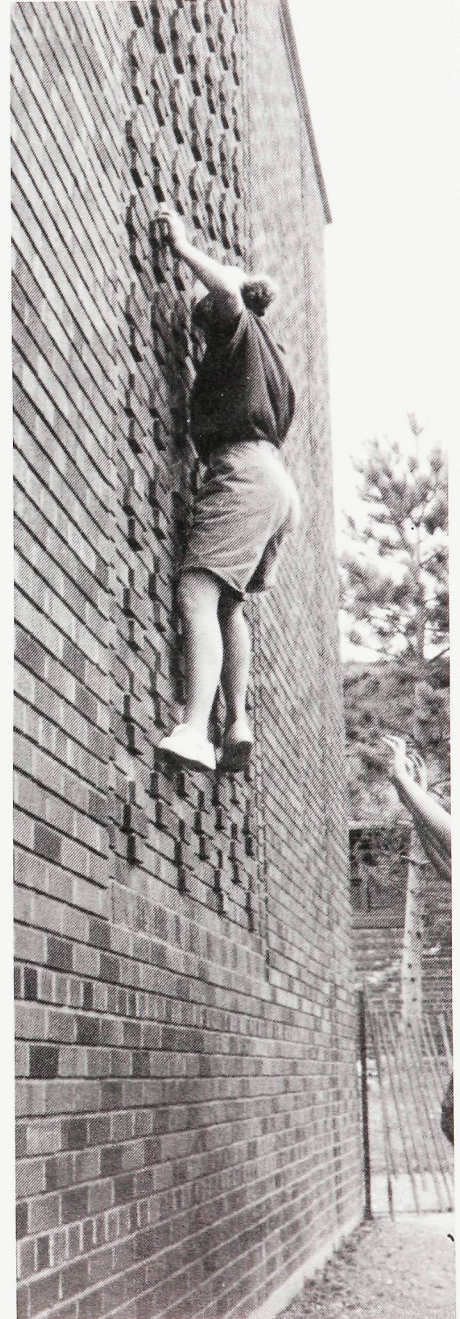

Ya don't say! I'm going to Africa! Don't you need to go for a walk sir!?!?. Just drop us off at the Knowlton exit for quality time with the family (BTC). Dynamics moments with Norm, the party with propane bombs, polar bear swims, enlightening games of... a great card game and Vern's nice plastic (goat skin) hat. By the way Marleau, what's a Volcano Burger?

Thanx for the party Dr. J. have fun in Africa and remember, when hiking, stay out of the valleys. Rah!!

Mr. Outdoors, Piper, and the Crew.

SWIMMING CYCLING “BIATHALONS, TRIATHALONS AND A LEMON?”

Cycling (Competitive) Lennoxville (B.C.S.)

Seeing as we were such a small CREASE, only a chosen few, we decided to personalize our article. The following remarks are to be taken with humor but not lightly, because they are reminders of how we'll remember each other.

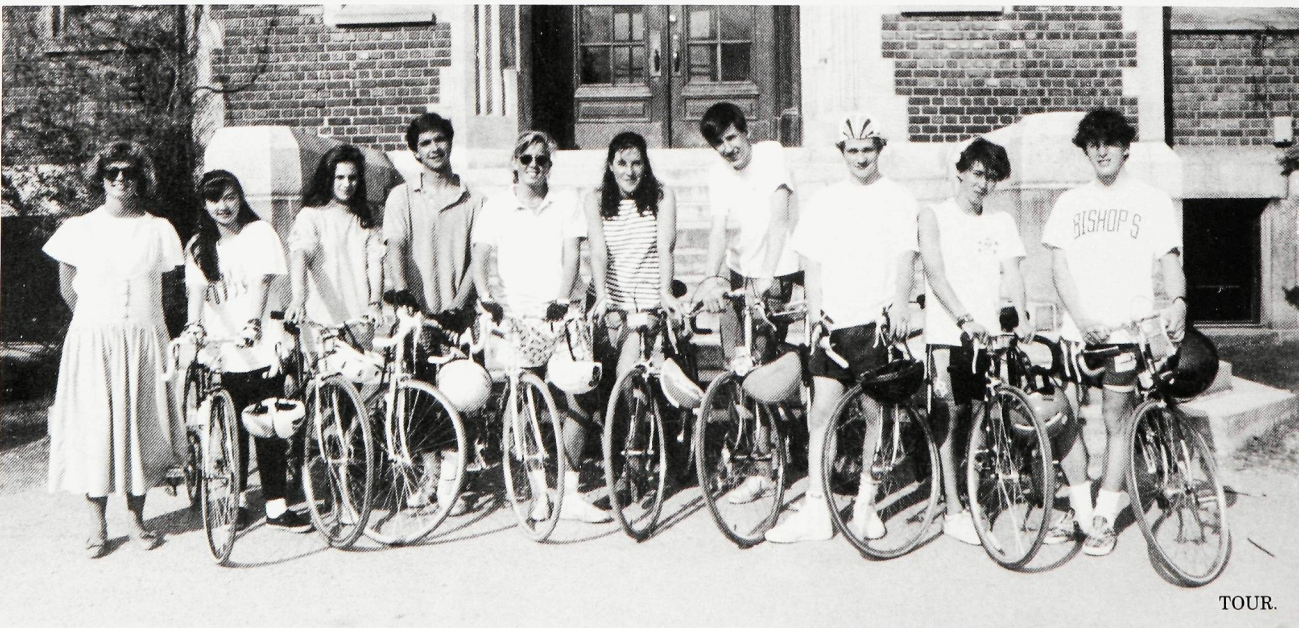

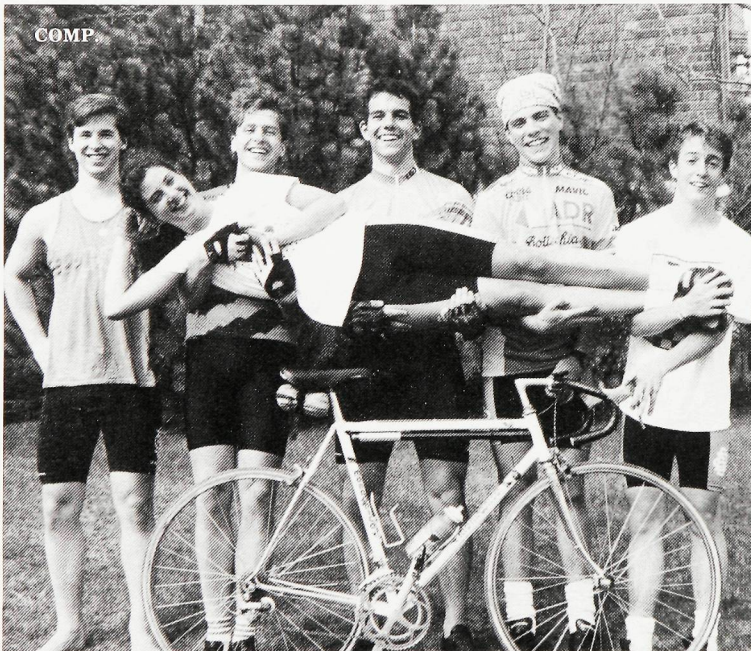

Mr. Jackson: Next time we go to North Hatley, remind us to bring our ATB's. "Have some cheese with your whine?!"

Frankie: (Goes to Hollywood?)

How many miles is that?!? There's your chance to do your century . . . Don't forget your helmet! Thanx for the Katevale Saturday, be careful, next time we may never leave. By the way, get a new bike . . . it's a lemon!

Nick: Glad you didn't switch to tennis! (you look too much like a cyclist, anyway) Don't worry . . . some famous cyclists are short! Finally, crease on Saturdays is at 9:30 not 10:30.

Matt: way to be on time . . . hope this ride isn't too long for you, so you're not too tired for dinner. Did you lose your incentive when Erin left? Well, good luck next year with whatever you're doing . . . keep us the cycling.

Mike: You're so fast you left us in the dust, maybe next year you'll really work hard!! Your enthusiasm got us into trouble, though - Woodward twice?? Leave some room for Jesus!

Lisa: How was it being the only girl??? Hope you weren't abused too much . . . I guess those Time pedals did that part!! Don't push yourself so hard for nothing - you're great - we all loved being behind you!!!

Our season was fast-paced and exciting, we totall ed well over 1,250 km. And all of it was hard work, fun and full of laughs.

First Row: L. Michals.

Second Row: M. Charlton, Mr. Jackson, M. LaRochell, F. Raff, N. Bruneau.

CYCLING

This term the cycling crease went . . . cycling! Compton, Johnsville, Waterville and Moulton Hill are where we ended up, with Dave and his sudden cramps and Antonio without a bike. When we thought we were experiencing a heart attack, we found ourselves at the top of Compton hill. Nevertheless we acquired fitness, road sense and many sore muscles. Many thanks to Miss. Vaneyk and Mr. Strickland, for their coaching.

Cycling (Touring)

K. Vaneyk, A. Lin, T. Jackman, A. Enrich, E. Moran, S. Côté, M. Munk, G. Michel, C. Lecuyer, D. Girardin.

Swimming

The first swimming crease of B.C.S. draws over 40 participants to form a strong team of eventually sixteen swimmers.

Participating in several meets including biathlons and a triathlon and taking top honours in most areas has established swimming as a strong team to contend with.

This years' team was a very cohesive group with outstanding leadership at all levels. A special note of thanks to the four team co-captains: Jenn Hession, Marty Lamoureux, Tetsuya Maeno, and Kristy McCurdy.

An annual trophy: "SPARKLE WITH PERRIER" is awarded to the most improved swimmer as a thank-you to Mrs. Anne Perrier for her support in the success of the swimming program.

This years' winner is Imad Raslan. CONGRATULATIONS!

First Row: A. Perrier, A. Choiniere, J. Hession, K. McCurdy, N. Koll, K. Smith, L. Marleau, N. Poirier, D. Parris, L. Harding.

Second Row: T. Maeno, M. Lamoureux, P. Kantordjief, G. Jones, J.F. Pinero, B. Culmer, I. Raslan, P. Ciaravola

GOLF TRACK AND FIELD "HOOK AND SLICE; FASTER AND FURTHER!"

Competitive Golf

The BCS golf team of 1990 enjoyed an undefeated season. In fact, it was only when playing a handicap match against our own Alumni that the school side finished second, and even then, it can be said that BCS had won.

Chris McDonald led the field with an excellent 75 in the Richmond Regional match. In our invitational tournament, it was Marc Bruneau who prevailed over our #3 man, Florian Schleiker, in the first extra hole. On this day, we hosted four other schools, and our four top golfers posted the four best scores.

But it was the North Country Invitational in Newport that demands our closest attention. Here there were 26 teams representing 24 schools. That's 104 golfers, and Marc Bruneau's 75 was two strokes better than the second place finisher. Meanwhile, the rest of the team, Chris McDonald, and two Florians, Schlieker and Schaller, combined with Marc, to bring the team a six stroke victory over the rest of the field.

Competitively, the year has an unparalleled success, but there is more to golf than competition, and to this end, we are most pleased to have continued with the instructional side of the crease, giving thirteen players beyond our top four the opportunity to learn and to love this great game.

WHO WILL CHALLENGE US?

CHAPMAN PRIDE

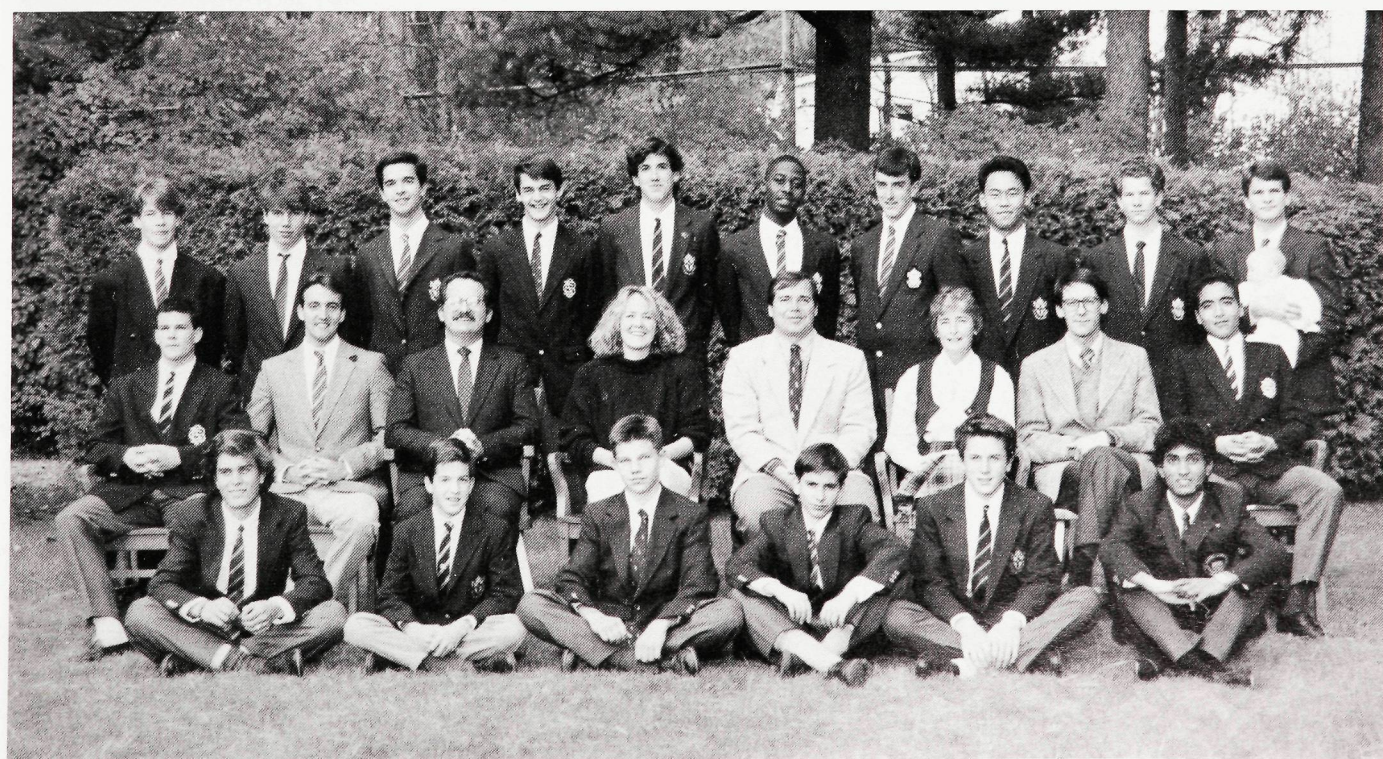

Chapman, Chapman, rah rah rah; Steve's a Frenchman, ha ha ha! Chuck loves tuck and Karim hates Chuck, Tom likes to fight while Trevor's up all night. Ian runs to make that Phone call, while Andrew dreams of playing Football. Yusef's earmuffs protect his ears, while Romo threatens our careers. Ahmed gets chicks while Adam takes ore hits. Bob does our Eco. essay, while Antonio doesn't know the time of day; Marty's a musician who puts Detloff in position. Chris is a New Brunswick type of guy, whereas our brains come from Andy Lai. Paulo's always on the go, and about Dave? Well, we just don't know. V.K. lives in the library, while Mr. St. Jacques tends to our Chemistry. Mich and Mich both live for Alexina, and all together we make the Chapman arena. CHAPMAN PRIDE WILL NEVER SUBSIDE, SO THOSE WHO CHALLENGE US HAD BETTER GO HIDE!

Gillard House

T'WAS THE NIGHT BEFORE . . .

Gillard House

T'was the night before Christmas, and all through the house not a creature was stirring, not even a mouse. Let's creep to the first floor and in the first room we find Isabelle hopping around with a colourful cast while Tracy has a blast. In the next room the pretty girl in pink and Conny Su and her organ are linked. Maya our Japanese volleyball star, with Asuka whose also come very far. Sophie our female jock and Natalie who talks a lot. Around the corner in room number five there's Sara who really doesn't live here and Amanda has just appeared. Amelie our little marathon skier and Katherine who is a dear. Trinity is eccentric, and Clodagh is our little red-headed chic. Elizabeth who is our munchkin is always down at tuck and Sandra who will speak English well soon with a little bit of luck. With a leap and a bound we go to find K&G "smeeties" from Curacao. Teresa from way up North and Pippa's brain will lead her forth. Pascale our neat-freak and Tanya's smile is very unique. Henriette our German blonde and Michelle, of the television, she is very fond. Gen and her "Lou-Lou", and Laura's eyes are wide and blue. Is it Sara, or "Frum-py"? And Anne Marie always look comphy. Through the senior common room we slip where the washing machine rings a funny clang click. Ilena, who's dimples are shown in her laugh, and then there's Jen who is always tutoring Kyler. Erin who run's around dressed as a clown. Tin THE Bishop, and Alex who's always on the hop. Michelynn who always gets picked up by . . . , and Julia who always goes out with guys who's favorite expression is "Mon Dit". Now down the stairs we fly to the annex where there's Lisa with her California greetings, and Julie with her secret meetings. We continue down the stairs to the left and we find Mora and Steph who live together like birds and feathers. To the right we find Gab who is always staring at her reflection, and Dana who's room is never cleaned to perfection. We pass the bathroom and find the room in which Lisa and Nath are always scamming. Across the hall we find Selole who is never on time and Marrienne's life is just fine. "Five minutes to bedtime!" comes a scream, so off we go to dream . . .

Merry Christmas to all and all a good night.

BLOOD-CURDLING
SCREAMS!!

GRIER SOUTH (B.C.S.)

Headlines from the first term:

Twenty-one new boys arrive on opening day to join the five veterans. These boys are proud of their size!!! Skateboarding rules with David, Chhe, the Ludlows, and Henry. Homesickness brings a few tears. Chuck, Bobby V., Jeff and Alex C. begin their regular visits to Glass House. The first many blood-curdling screams by Matthieu. All the shoes - 2 by 2 - neatly rowed. Body art by the cellar dwellers. Daily formal inspection for the chosen few. Do Dennis and Alex H. actually talk? Don't worry, Gillett, you're not that chunky!! Cooking rice again, Alfred?? Still on new student line, Henry and Sean!! Julien is missed during his extended visit to the hospital.

A number of board games are given to Grier South. Many thanks to the B.C.S. Auxiliary. Stratego is popular but backgammon fever takes over. Who's kicking whom? Can Mr. K. actually roll all the numbers he predicts?

- = = 74

"Hats, coats, boots, and gloves please" "But, it's not really cold, sir!" You know work socks are not proper dress socks. History follow-up tomorrow, who needs late lights? Picking his way through duty by the Doc. Is that really your new car, Elvis?

Oh, oh, Hyper Piper is on duty. Don't knock on my door unless it's a real emergency -- someone's dead or it's you know who!!! Laps by PV squared (lots of pressure but not much volume).

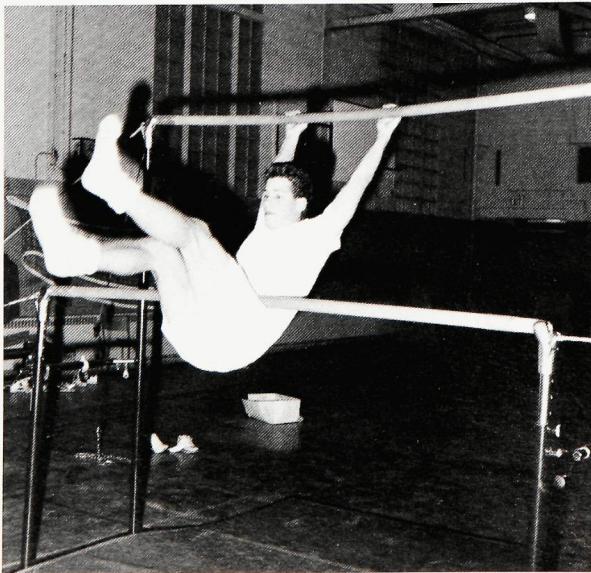

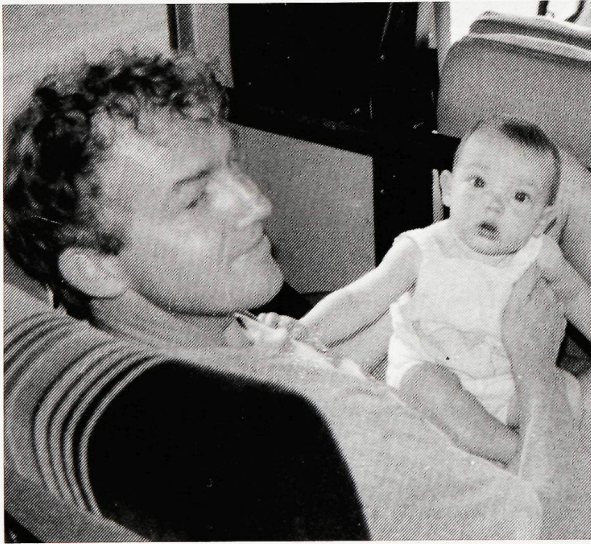

It's been great!!

House
FEAR (HA).

MCNAUGHTON HOUSE

McNaughton effected
an unprecedented
amount of house unity this year.
We were often late
as breakfast we ate
with dining hall hounding our rear laps we would run
in the early morn's sun
as a house, to get it in gear.

Jansen on Monday
would like to play
Nintendo 'til the end of the year
The (h) Almighty was Carlo,
Marlin was Rambo
And Turner was able to hear when late at night
we turned on the light
and often would joke, laugh or jeer
Brass and his mutt
would often strut
through the halls instilling fear. (ha)

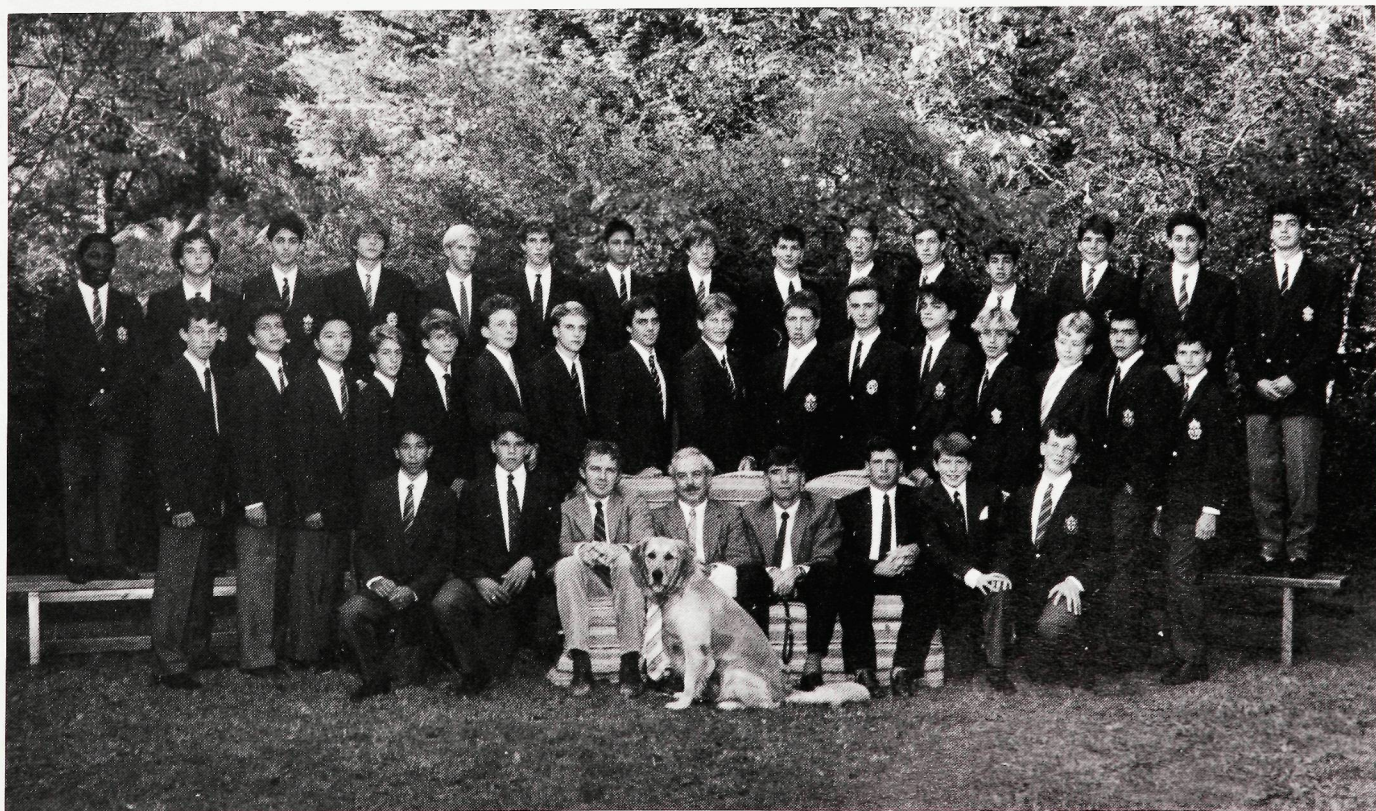

a hole in the wall
was an early downfall,
restricted for one twelfth of the year
at Carnival time
we are sublime
winning 'tug o' war' against Grier
both of us blue
but only one true
perhaps that's why we're their peers stay up later and do less is the motto we know best however we may fail the year when we leave
perhaps we'll grieve
and go drown our sorrows in malt.

GREY HAIR AND BLINDNESS.

WILLIAMS HOUSE

B.C.S. Williams house, changed a lot the past year. We went from half the house on headmasters to half the house failing at least one subject. All those guys, give us time, don't excite us to much. Those long walks up to school definitely aged us, grey hair and blindness. Chrissy, Biff's here . . . Catherine having another relationship. Amanda are you ever going to make your bed properly? Gretchen our nocturnal animal, Josee: Romeo, Romeo . . . Christie, our sexy head of carnival, look at those dynamite legs! Watch out Annabelle there's a man coming up your stairs. Sarah, our hyper motorboat. Chrystell and Ana; our beautiful Mexican chics, Sophie; you blow your nose just like you play your trumpet, Like Oh my God, Stephanie has such a good complexion, Rio; the sweet Brazilian, Our humbly, beautiful Miss gummy bear, How much do your Chemistry books weigh Andrea? Where's the cookies, Cheryl, the owl can smell them. Nora; "I do not snore", and finally Amelie; "As tu retrouver ton crayon bleue?" Mme. St. Jacques; "Lets change the channel girls!" Debbie; Oprah freak and Ms. Reed; our Jeopardy fanatic, Mrs. Peacock; did you make this? Oh by the way there will be a house meeting following the closing ceremonies, Ms. Nelson will be there to count our c_____.

Abraham Lincoln said: -

“You cannot help the poor by destroying the rich, you cannot strengthen the weak by weakening the strong, you cannot bring prosperity by discouraging thrift, you cannot help men permanently by doing for them what they can do for themselves, you cannot keep out of trouble by spending more than you earn.”
